

You are eligible to defer the cost of your bookstore purchase against your anticipated financial aid at the Raider Trader College Store on the FMCC Campus if you have a credit on your Tuition & Fees account based on...

ACTUAL PACKAGED FINANCIAL AID

and/or

CERTIFIED STUDENT LOAN(S)

... and you have submitted a certificate of residence (if required). The College Store is notified automatically of Book Deferral information for students who meet these qualifications prior to the book deferral period. This information is updated weekly through the book deferral period, so please...

**REVIEW YOUR ACCOUNT TO BE SURE YOUR DEFERRAL IS IN PLACE****

Students who do not appear on the deferral list in the College Store will be referred to the Bursar's Office for further inquiry. You can verify that your deferral has been submitted to the College Store by checking your statement through the FMCC Student Service Portal. Please note: There are NO book deferrals offered during the Winter semester.

Fall 2024 Semester:	Begins: August 14, 2024 – Ends: September 18, 2024
Winter 2025 Session	NO Book Deferrals Available
Spring 2025 Semester:	Begins: January 15, 2025 – Ends: February 12, 2025

Please note: After the regular book deferral period ends, exceptions will be available through the College Store for students attending late-start classes.

**Reminder – FMCC participates in the Equitable Access Program. Any assigned texts (digital or hard copy) are accounted for in your Course Material Fees listed on your semester statement. You may choose to OPT OUT of this program and purchase your texts on your own – You must do so prior to the OPT OUT date set by the bookstore each semester. To OPT OUT – see the bookstore directly.

**REPORT DIRECTLY TO THE COLLEGE STORE FOR YOUR BOOKS****